

Press Release

Last night, the Waverly Board of Education, identified two candidates as finalists for the open Superintendent of Schools position. Michigan Leadership Institute Regional President Tim Stein, shared that following first round interviews, the Board of Education spent time reviewing interview notes, candidate application materials and public interview feedback forms to arrive at a decision. Each board member identified two candidates to move forward in the process. The votes were tallied to determine the finalists. The following candidates were selected as finalists:

- Glenn Mitcham, Deputy Superintendent, East Lansing Public Schools
- Christopher Huff, Director of Teaching & Learning, Waverly Community Schools

The Board will hold final round interviews on Tuesday, August 5, 2025 at 5:00p.m. and Wednesday, August 6, 2025 at 5:00p.m. Final round interviews will include a twenty-minute presentation by the candidate followed by a forty-minute interview by the Board. Interviews will be held in the Waverly Community Schools Administration Office Board Room. Parents, students, staff, and community members are welcome to attend and will be allowed to provide written feedback regarding candidates to the Board following each interview. The Board is also planning Meet the Candidate events prior to each interview. Meet the Candidate schedule to follow in the coming days. All interested parents, students, staff, and community members are asked to attend and provide feedback to the Board.
